Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Melvin:

What a pleasure it was to be associated with you last week in our gospel meeting. Your own vast experience, I am sure, has shown how important the local preacher is to such an effort. I am convinced that without your assistance and support our meeting could not have been what it was.

Thank you for your kind and generous treatment of me as my host. I know that you went out of your way many times to assist and to encourage me during the week. All of this is appreciated deeply. Please convey my special regards to your wife. It was a genuine treat to be with both of you.

Enclosed is the address for Decision magazine. You might also be interested in knowing that Billy Graham will have a three night telecast seen in Chattanooga on Channel 12 at 7:30, May 2-4. Thanks again for all your encouragement.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
